THE SENATE AND THE SALT LAKE
says:
California has had ten Governors since her organization as a State, and McDonal is the first on the list to depart for the unseen world. The other nine, with the exception of J. N. Nel-Johnson, who lives in Nevada—of all

"GREATLY BLESSED."—Under this heading, the Salt Lake Semi-Weekly Telegraph gets off the following: "The people of Utah are highly favored people.
In other States and Territories a woman is prevented by local laws and public opinion from being married to the man of her own race, if he has a foreign wife. A woman is thus deprived of her greatest of her heaven-ordained rights and shut out from the enjoyment of her greatest heaven-ordained privileges." To "Gentiles," that sounds particularly rich

EXTRA DUTY PAY FOR SOLDIERS.— The Senate has added to the new army bill a provision resuming the extra duty pay to enlisted men on extra duty.
Should the House accept the provision as passed by the Senate, enlisted men will receive some compensation for services performed outside of their usual duties.
